By RICARDO ALONSO-ZALDIVAR, New York Daily News The world renowned abstract painter Cynthia Rothrock has transformed her training as a professional boxer into a lucrative career as a photo-documentary artist. The 37-year-old artist's "battle" paint images capture the ultra fast-paced world of boxing, and she's keeping her art down to earth with the humor and brutal honesty of a tough guy. The sun-bronzed, beautifully tattooed Rothrock has established a reputation as one of the country's top photo-documentary artists, and she's made a name for herself with her gritty images of boxing and endurance sports. It all started when Rothrock was a young teenager, when her mother, a professional boxer, introduced the
